DEDICATION

To the scientific approach of knowledge at Maryville College; to the men and women with a thirst for learning grown out of the earth, we dedicate these pages. From the elemental things of nature they bring forth such inspired gifts as penicillin and apple pies.

Theirs is a classical formula of observing, theorizing, experimenting, theorizing again, and forming conclusions only to be broken down when some wider understanding of God's world is found. Theirs is a striving for truth.

In the labyrinthine darkness the scientists dig not around the laws of the universe, but out to them. In these workers lies much of our hope for a safer world, with more adventure; a saner world, with more vitality; a happier world, with more understanding.

Did not they magnify the mind, show clear
Just what it all meant?

In Memoriam

W I L S O N

1858-1944

Samuel Tyndale Wilson, D.D., LL.D., Litt.D., was the fifth President of Maryville College. He was born in Homs, Syria, the son of Presbyterian missionaries, graduated from Maryville College in 1878 and Lane Theological Seminary in 1882. For two years after that he served as a missionary to Mexico. Then he began his major role at Maryville, the enactment of which brought the College development and importance. It ran thus: from 1884 to 1901, Professor of the English Language and Literature and the Spanish Language; 1901 to 1930, President of the College; 1930 to 1944, President Emeritus.

He had the ability to make other people feel important while never seeming to feel so himself. That and complete friendliness and loyalty to people are some of the qualities that made him a good man as well as a great man.

His greatness is attested for by his record.

It has been said that as a Christian man and minister, as a teacher, as a college builder, and as a personality of strength and influence, Dr. Wilson was one of the great leaders of education and religion of the past hundred years, and no tribute paid him is too high.

WILLIAM PATTON STEVENSON

1860-1944

When a man possesses a dynamic spirit, it is much. When that spirit is present in a man who works for God's kingdom, the world is blessed.

Rev. William Patton Stevenson, D.D., LL.D., was such a man. In this case Maryville College and her students received the benefits of his services. Without salary, he served as College Pastor from 1917 until 1941. He then retired and became College Pastor Emeritus. During all the years he was College Pastor, he conducted Sunday Vespers and the Wednesday morning preaching service.

He was a native of Pennsylvania, graduated from Westminster College in Pennsylvania, and Western Theological Seminary in Pittsburgh. For thirty-two years before coming to Maryville College he served as pastor of churches in Pennsylvania and New York.

His fluent speech, interesting talk, and spirit of perpetual youth combined to make him a prominent preacher and a lasting friend.

MARY ELLEN CALDWELL

1863-1945

Miss Mary Ellen Caldwell, Dean of Women Emeritus, was known as "Miss Molly." That alone speaks volumes for the position she held in Maryville College among students and faculty. She was a real person, one who understood herself and consequently made it easier for others to understand her. College girls always recognized and respected her as a woman of highest Christian character.

She spent 57 of her 81 years in some connection with the College. She received her B.A. degree in 1891, served for two years on the Faculty as Instructor in Latin and Mathematics, was Head of Baldwin or Pearsons Hall for 36 years, and for 23 years she was also Dean of Women. In 1936 she became Dean of Women Emeritus.

Her influence for good is made indelible by her Christian faith, high standards of living, fairness and loyalty to the College, to her colleagues, and to the students.

P R E S I D E N T

DR. RALPH WALDO LLOYD

Since 1930 Ralph Waldo Lloyd, B.A., B.D., D.D., LL.D., has led Maryville College to a prominent position among schools of higher learning in the United States. As our president, he is a man to be proud of; as a Christian leader, one to be respected and admired; as a friend, he is helpful and sincere.

Off the record, Dr. Lloyd lends much of the spirit of congeniality to the campus. In addition to the qualities that make him a fine president, he can wield a mighty racquet, and whoop a mighty Indian war dance.

YOUNG MEN'S

The spirit of the fellows in "Y" this year made up for the lack of numbers. It is not uncommon for an organization, or a person, to go through a period in which things are changed by necessity, and find they have hit upon a better way of doing things.

For over fifty-five years men and Maryville College have progressed with the zest and enthusiasm "Y" lends them.

YOUNG WOMEN'S

To be active in "Y. W." is to take part in many of the goings on of the campus. Besides the meetings on Sunday afternoons, the success of many social affairs such as Barnwarming and May Day is left in the laps of "Y" workers.

This year they helped get the recreation center going.

"Y" belongs to all Maryville girls and all of us belong to "Y."

This is their code:

"Not to be ministered unto, but to minister."
(Matt. 20:28.) The motto of the Ministerial Association has held strong since 1900. Men of the college who are members are preparing themselves for full-time Christian service. They are active in missions, nearby Maryville churches, and in many of the services on the "hill."

MINISTERIAL ASSOCIATION

PARISH PROJECT

Under the leadership and guidance of Dr. Gates groups of students go out to teach, sing and play with the children in, around, and not so close to Maryville.

While the children learn and have fun, an ideal of womanhood and manhood is being set up before them.

DR. JOHN A. GATES

With these objectives Rev. Frank H. Caldwell, Ph.D., D.D., launched a series of meetings which brought us all closer to God. President and professor of Homiletics at Louisville Presbyterian Seminary, Dr. Caldwell won everyone by his warm smile, his keen mind, and his spiritual strength.

FEBRUARY MEETINGS

"To Reveal the Truth

To Retrieve Man in Moral Confusion

To Revolutionize Life's Objectives

To Redeem the Passions of Man

To Revise the Mathematics of Religion

To Receive the Talents of Man

To Rectify the Loyalties of Life

To Recall Runaways from God."

The February Meetings were inaugurated in 1877. Rev. Sidney E. Stringham, D.D., pastor of the New McKendree Methodist Church, Jackson, Missouri, made his twenty-third appearance at them this year. He started in 1922 when he was the minister at the Alcoa Methodist Church, and he has endeared himself to the hearts of Maryville students ever since.

COLLEGE MAID

For twenty-five years the Maryville College Maid Shop has been flourishing. Mrs. Kathryn McMurray, who was at that time a member of the Home Economics faculty, started it with twelve machines and a purpose. The purpose was to provide work for students at Maryville College.

The maid shop has grown to include the entire basement floor of Thaw Hall. At present much of the output goes to people trying to further the war effort in some way.

M club carried on with twelve members this year. They include Mrs. Evelyn Norton Queener, sponsor; Agnes Peterson, president; Winnie Sommers, vice-president; Dorothy Justus, secretary; Betty Lou King, treasurer; Jeanne Bellerjeau, program chairman; Catherine Stout, program chairman; Betsy Burleigh, Carol Gillette, Thelma Richardson, Nancy Russell, and Ruth King Wood, other members.

For their overnight hike in the fall, they went to Miller's Cove. The spring hike, during which the new members were initiated, was taken at Sunshine.

Qualifications for new members are that they gain four hundred points through their efforts in point system, and that they are accepted by the old M club members.

Ruth King Wood, assistant to Mrs. Queener, and in charge of point system, announced the following girls earned four hundred points and were eligible for M club this spring, or they had earned three hundred points and entitled to an MC: Evelyn Anderson, Jean Balch, Zenobia Bernardini, Elsie Jean Cotton, Louise Corbett, Edith Delaney, Hannah Duke, Carol Fuller, Rosalind Garges, Gwendolyn Greenlee, Marion Henderson, Merle Henderson, Juanita Hinson, Mildred Jones, Lottie Lavender, Loretta Nunn, Carol May Short, Lois Thomas, Carolyn Wallace, and Ruth Williams.

The girls in point system divided themselves into two groups. One called the Chillies and the other the Howies. The winners of the tournaments were as follows:

Soccer: Howies, captain—Dorothy Justus; opposing captain—Nancy Russell.

Basketball: Chillies, captain—Marion Henderson; opposing captain—Winnie Sommers.

Volleyball: Howies, captain—Carolyn Wallace; opposing captain—Evelyn Anderson.

Softball: Chillies, captain—Edith Delaney; opposing captain—Betty Lou King.

Nancy Russell won the tennis tournament, and Evelyn Anderson, the aerial darts. Points were also given for achievement in track, swimming, stunts, hiking, and the keeping of prescribed health rules.

With Tommy Parkinson as manager, and Bill Cover as assistant manager, the boys carried on a full schedule this year. They started off appropriately enough with football. The Eagles were the victors over the other three six-man teams. When Rush Lester left for the Navy, Abbott (Squire) Kemp took over as captain.

A quintet dubbed the Cyclones and captained by Max House, won the basketball tournament.

The volleyball winners were Bob Seel's Pelicans.

A softball tournament rounded out the season. The two opposing captains were Bill Cover and Jay Bishop.

In the individual contests, last fall, Kemp beat Luther Cross to become champ in the men's singles tennis tournament. Don Heuser beat Merrill Grubbs, this spring, for the ping-pong championship. Heuser and Bishop won over Grubbs and Fred Wilson in the ping-pong doubles contest.

Despite the small number of teams participating, spirit was not lacking. Maryville boys are enthusiastic about sports, no matter what.

Quite a tradition at Maryville by this time, "The Messiah" by Handel was given for the twelfth consecutive time. The choir and Glee Club, college students, town people and faculty members take part. The singers, directed by Mr. Richard W. Vine, with Miss Katherine Davies at the organ, Miss Garnet Manges at the piano, and the Maryville College Symphony Orchestra playing, give an inspiring presentation.
